Claud Slate Memorial Scholarship

Sponsored By the Texas Baptist Bivocational and Smaller Membership Ministers and Spouses Association

In 1987, the First Annual Bivocational and Smaller Membership Ministers and Spouses Conference was held in Belton at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor. This conference came about through the efforts of Claud Slate. At that meeting he was elected President and an informal Association was formed to assure that the State meetings would continue. He was President for 10 years. Claud Slate was a great leader and promoter of bivocational ministry.

Purpose

The Texas Baptist Bivocational and Small Membership Ministers and Spouses Association has established the Claud Slate Memorial Scholarship for the purpose of aiding those called into bivocational/smaller church ministry to help finance college and or seminary work at a Texas Baptist University or Theological Seminary. The scholarship will be a onetime scholarship and a minimum of $300 per person.
